

Group 1: You are residents of Sipson, a village next to Heathrow. If the runway is built, your village will be destroyed. Although you will be given some money, you will have to move house.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your side?

2. What evidence do you need to collect to support your argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to make change?

6. Think of three things you could do...

i) ii)

iii)

Group 2: You are workers at Heathrow. You want to make sure there are lots of jobs and decent pay.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your side?

2. What evidence do you need to collect to support your argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to make change?

6. Think of three things you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

Group 3: You are businesspeople. Your companies do business all over the world and you often use Heathrow to fly to meetings in other countries.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your
side?

2. What evidence do you need to collect to support your argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to
make change?

6. Think of three things
you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

Group 4: You are a group of ordinary people who are worried about climate change. You want to reduce the amount of greenhouse gases that are produced globally.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your
side?

2. What evidence do you need
to collect to support your
argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to
make change?

6. Think of three things
you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

Group 5: You are a Member of Parliament (politician). You represent the area around Heathrow airport. Lots of people have come to you and said that they are worried about the noise and pollution from aeroplanes.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your
side?

2. What evidence do you need
to collect to support your
argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to
make change?

6. Think of three things
you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

Group 6: You are Greenpeace. You are a pressure group that campaigns on environmental issues. You want to stop climate change.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your
side?

2. What evidence do you need
to collect to support your
argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to
make change?

6. Think of three things
you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

Group 7: You are bosses at BAA, the company that owns Heathrow airport. You are worried that if the airport does not get bigger, air companies and passengers will use other airports instead.

1. Do you want a third runway?
Why?

3. Who might be on your side?

2. What evidence do you need to collect to support your argument?

4. Who might be against you?

5. What tools could you use to make change?

6. Think of three things you could do...

i)

ii)

iii)

