

Comparing London with Where I Live

Fill in the missing information in the table.

Quote your sources!

What can you infer by comparing the information about London with the information about the place where we live?

	London	Where I live:
Where is it?
How big is it?	Answer: 607 square miles Source: www.reference.com	Answer: Source:
How many people live there?	Answer: 8.8 million Source: www.trustforlondon.org.uk	Answer: Source:
How many people live per square mile?	Answer: 13,600 Source: www.reference.com	Answer: Source:
How many languages are spoken?	Answer: Over 250 Source: projectbritain.com	Answer: Source:
What modes of transport are available?	Source: www.visitlondon.com Answers: Buses, trains, London Underground trains (the "Tube"), River Buses, London Cycles, trams, taxis...	Source: Answer:
How many bus routes are there?	Answer: Over 700 Source: tfl.gov.uk	Answer: Source:
What other info can you compare?		